Spyrix Personal Monitor is a powerful multifunctional program for complete and detailed REMOTE MONITORING of user activity. It can monitor and record all computer activities, including screenshots, keystrokes, chat sessions, Skype calls, website history, e-mail messages, browsing history and more. It is the ideal business tool for setting up data security and effective time management. It will enable you to monitor all computer activity in total while protecting your personal data. Spyrix Personal Monitor's toolbox is not limited to that: it allows you to record all audio on the computer or stream from the microphone, to add custom tags and notes to any file you select, to search through the content of your emails and record all Skype calls and chat sessions. You can even use it as a portable audio recorder to record all business meetings and monitor new hires at your office. It's worth noting that Spyrix Personal Monitor does not use Internet and is not designed to reveal any details about your browsing activity. You can view the statistics of the recorded activity at any time to keep a close eye on your computer activities and quickly review your most interesting tasks to do in the future. You can also export to any format, including Portable Document Format, to view and share your data anywhere you want. Spyrix Personal Monitor is completely invisible and comes with a powerful and easy-to-use interface. You can easily set its color schemes, notification, and other preferences. The Spyrix Personal Monitor license is completely free and comes with a 10-day free trial. It is designed to detect activity on both Windows and Mac and can be downloaded from the Spyrix website for free. It is also available for purchase from the Spyrix store. You can opt to pay for either Spyrix Personal Monitor or Spyrix Personal Monitor Pro. This tool can gather all information about the computer you are using, including its IP address, MAC address, running processes, Windows applications, browser information, network traffic, screenshots, and full audio recordings. It is ideal for business security, enabling you to get to the root of any suspicious activity. Spyrix Personal Monitor is a complete information gathering and monitoring program that is completely safe and invisible.
